Alvarado's "Catfish" Will Hook You

2022-09-30

GONE FISHING

Jennifer Alvarado goes fishing with her new single, "catfish" and snags another country-rock tune hit that will have your foot-stomping, fingers desk-tapping, and singing along to a catchy pause and boom chorus. She wastes little time getting you there too. "Karma has a way of finding, you when you get in her way," says Alvarado before the suspenseful quiet before she stretches her vocals and pulls you in.

Alvarado's "Catfish" will hook you and is a formidable follow-up to the spring release, "Rock This Way", part of a larger project called, "Songbird Part 1" that like "Catfish" shares a country-bite that makes you feel you've heard it before and want to hear it again. It has all the elements of a song you hand-slap your steering wheel, sing out loud at home, or hear the jingle of the buckles of your country boots as they keep the beat out on the dance floor.

THE CATFISH MESSAGE HOOK

Don't dismiss this as another country fishing song because it's not. Catfishing is a figure of speech for tricking someone into believing that you're something you're not, to maybe get something you would not otherwise get from them, like money, love, or even stealing their identity. She nails the message and the song, and you can listen knowing it's all legit and you won't find any music tricks here, as Alvarado's "Catfish" will hook you.
